

Philippa Tsilik

Curriculum Vitae

Profession: Editor, writer and materials developer

Date of Birth: 15 September 1955

Nationality: South African

Membership of Professional Organisations:

The Academic and Non-Fiction Authors' Association of South Africa (ANFASA)

Key Qualifications:

- Strategy development and research background; professional editing, materials development and writing in the fields of sustainable development, energy and climate change
- Excellent language skills
- Professional educational editing and writing experience
- Language practitioner (English as Second Language)
- Teaching background

Relevant Experience

- Freelance writing, editing and research for OneWorld Sustainable Investments. Developing, writing and editing the Western Cape Climate Change Strategy (2006/7) Chief editorial projects (and some research components) include: Ibhubesi Gasfields (West Coast, South Africa) Social Development Plan Report; Uganda Water Resources Climate Change Strategy and Action Plan Report; George Mobility Strategy: Socioeconomic Study Report
- Worked with OneWorld team on developing and writing and editing Feasibility of the Regional Climate Change Programme for DfID (UK)

Education: (& Professional Qualifications)

BA University of Cape Town (1975)

Higher Diploma of Education University of Cape Town (1976)

Employment Record:

Oct 2009 – current Editor, Proposals and reports coordinator, OneWorld Sustainable Investments
2002 - 2009 Freelance editor and materials developer
2001 Editor: Oxford University Press (SA) Schools Division
1999 - 2000 Personal Assistant to Visser Thomas Architects
1998 - 1999 Personal Assistant to New Property Ventures (Pty) Ltd.
1985 -1998 Teacher: (English Second Language) at Ma'ale Habsor High School, Israel.

Publications

New Modern Graded English (Grades 4 to 9). Learner's Book; Teacher's Guide; Reader; CD. Nasou Via Afrika. 2004, 2005, 2006 (co-author)

Fighting with my weak hand (artist's monograph). Editor. © PlanetPaul. 2006

Languages:

English, Afrikaans, French (fair)